

Writer #1: Susan M. Dixon

Lanning, Nelson M.

[Hasbrouck Heights, NJ]

1923

Dixon
Lanning

Hasbrouck Heights Public Schools

Hasbrouck Heights, New Jersey

J. EARLE THOMSON, A. M., SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL

Nov. 20.

My dear Mr. Wood:

I hope you remember
my visit to you when I had an inquiry to make with regard to a coin
which proved to be a sister coin of Marcus Aurelius.

Now, it seems that my young friend who owns
the coin wishes to know
its value as a coin today. Will you please give me this information?
I shall be deeply grateful to you. If you will address your reply to Mr. Nelson M.

Lanning, Bank of Haverbrook Heights, Haverbrook Heights, N.Y.
it will reach the owner of the erin.

I have thought many times
of these Arabic MSS. of which you told me. I'm going to take a "day off" sometime and come in to see them.

I am Librarian here and have a vast curiosity about these things.

With grateful acknowledgment of your courtesy, I am

Faithfully your "friend
the enemy"

Susan D. M.

November 22nd, 1923

Mr. Nelson M. Lanning
Bank of Hasboureck Heights
Hasbrouck Heights, N.J.

Dear Sir:

Miss Susan Dixon has asked me to let you know the value of the Roman coin which she brought in to us the other day. As we recall it, it was neither rare nor in very good shape, and in this condition such coins can be bought anywhere from ten to fifty cents.

Very truly yours,

Curator

HW/E